

Council oks raise, denies election request

By Lynne Locke

The City Council Monday night approved the first pay raise in 10 years for the city treasurer but denied the Upland Fire Fighters Association a chance to ask voters for an improved retirement system.

In asking the council for a $90 per month pay raise for the treasurer, City Manager Lee Travers noted the treasurer's pay has not been raised since it was set at $135 in 1964.

Travers said the some duties performed by an outside consultant would cost the city $340 per month.

The City Council approved the raise to $225 per month as proportional to raises received by other city employees during the same time period.

The council denied the fire fighters' request for a ballot measure on the March 2 election, noting the improved retirement system would cost the city $65,000 per year.

Councilman Hal Bailin commented the fire fighters are "reasonably well paid," have "secure" jobs and a "good retirement system."

Increasing the tax rate 6 cents per $100 of assessed valuation in order to provide a better retirement system is not advisable considering the economic condition of the city and its residents, Bailin said.

Mayor pro tem John McCarthy favored letting the voters decide whether to approve the proposed retirement system and the resultant tax increase.

Mayor Abner Haldeman voted to let residents decide the matter although he noted a "turning point in taxes will require belt-tightening by the public" because of rough budgetary times ahead.

Commenting citizens would pay the cost of the election, estimated at $1,200-$1,500, Councilwoman Ina Petokas voted against taking the matter to the voters.

Councilman George Gibson was absent and did not vote on the issue, leaving two in favor and two opposed. Under governmental procedure a tie vote is defeated.

In other action Monday night the council:

—Selected Owen Menard and Associates to complete an environmental impact report (EIR) on the city's general plan and to develop a comprehensive housing assessment study development plan for projects under the federally funded Housing and Community Development Act.

—Approved a conditional use permit for a veterinary hospital at the northwest corner of Central Avenue and Huntington Drive. A small animal hospital, with some inside kennel space, will be built in the first phase of construction.

—Approved a conditional use permit for 120 units in a planned residential development on 21 acres at the northwest corner of Mountain Avenue and 17th Street. The project will have a density of 5.45 units per acre in a zone which allows 12 units per acre. The Mountain Avenue side of the development will have landscaped earth berms and vistas through wrought-iron fences.

—Approved a conditional use permit for an Italian family restaurant in the proposed Mountain Plaza Shopping Center. The council limited restaurant operation to 11 a.m.-11 p.m. as a condition of the permit.

—Approved a prezone change from low-density residential to single-family residential with a minimum lot size of 10,000 square feet for 19.7 acres at the northwest corner of Mountain Avenue and 16th Street.

The prezone change will become effective after its second reading at the Jan. 19 council meeting. The final zoning will be effective when the area is annexed by the city.

—Approved a tentative tract map for 57 lots on 18.5 acres at the northeast corner of Benson Avenue and 16th Street.

The council also authorized the city staff to begin proceedings to annex the area which is prezoned single-family residential with a minimum lot size of 10,000 square feet.

—Approved a tentative tract map for 18 lots on 10 acres northeast of 19th Street and San Antonio Avenue. The area is proposed for single-family residential zoning with a minimum lot size of 20,000 square feet.

News Briefs

Correction

The Upland News incorrectly reported last week the San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors was scheduled to consider a zone change for an asphalt batch plant near Benson Avenue and 20th Street, west of Upland.

The zone change is still under consideration by the county Planning Commission which will hear it again at the Jan. 8 meeting. After Planning Commission consideration, the zone change will be heard by the supervisors.

Planning Commission to meet

Upland Planning Commission will meet 7:30 p.m. Tuesday instead of the usual meeting time which would fall on Christmas day. Public hearings include:

—An amendment to the zoning code to allow massage parlors only in highway-commercial zones and requiring a conditional use permit.

—A prezone change from low-density residential to single-family residential with a minimum lot size of 10,000 square feet for 19 acres between Wilson and Benson avenues along the extension of 17th Street. Pre-zone changes go into effect when the area is annexed to the city.

—A conditional-use permit for a veterinary hospital in a proposed highway-commercial zone northeast of Foothill Boulevard and Central Avenue.

—A conditional-use permit for a Jack in the Box drive-through restaurant at Ralphs Plaza, northeast corner of San Antonio Avenue and Foothill Boulevard.

—A tentative tract map for 36 lots on 8.7 acres on Alta Avenue north of 14th Street in a single-family residential zone with a minimum lot size of 7,500 square feet.

Christmas party

The 15th annual Senior Citizen Christmas Party, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Upland, will be held 7:30-9 p.m. Friday at the Upland High School Auditorium, according to coordinator Alan Howell. The annual party, attended last year by more than 1,000 West End senior citizens, will feature a program of musical and variety acts highlighted by a visit from Santa Claus. Each person attending will receive a gift. Howell said all senior citizens are invited to the free party. Wheel chairs, fully equipped with a Kiwanis Key Club or Kiwanette pusher, will be available at the auditorium. For free transportation call the Ontario YMCA, 986-5847, 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

Library's holiday ours

The Upland Public Library will be open to the public from 9:15 a.m.-5 p.m. Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve, but will be closed on Christmas Day and New Year's day. During the rest of the holiday season the library will be open its usual hours 9:15 a.m.-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday and 9:15 a.m.-6 p.m. Friday and Saturday. Because of the holidays, the Upland Public Library story time and Hobby Circle will not meet Dec. 23, 24, 30 or 31. Both programs will resume 10 a.m. January 6 and 7.

Santa Claus at Kiosk

Santa Claus will be at the Upland Town Center kiosk to talk with children and adults Friday, Saturday, Monday Tuesday and Wednesday.

Canned food collection

Upland High School Parent-Teacher-Student Association (PTSA) is collecting canned food through Friday. PTSA delivered food to more than 80 local families last year. Food can be placed in boxes in the school cafeteria.

New games afternoon

Upland Recreation Department will sponsor a "new games afternoon" featuring a seven-foot earth ball 1-4 p.m. Tuesday at Magnolia Park, 15th Street and San Antonio Avenue. The free afternoon includes snake-in-the-grass, hunker-hauser, Le Mans tug-of-war, slaughter, and tweezy wop. Participants should plan to get dirty, and play hard and fair with no one getting hurt and everyone winning, according to the Recreation Department.

High School sports

Upland High School athletic competition scheduled this week includes: varsity basketball in the Ramona Tournament today and Friday.

Book search

Upland High School library is searching for books of all shapes and sizes lost from the library during the last few years. The Parent-Teacher-Student Association (PTSA) is asking people to search for overdue books which can be placed in the Upland Public Library drive-up book drop through Tuesday. Books will be returned to the high school library without penalty for any borrower, according to a PTSA member.

Writing course

Writing for publication will be taught at Upland High School Thursday nights during the winter quarter which starts Jan. 5. The class is offered by the office of continuing education at California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. For information call the extension office, 598-4391.

Minibus holiday hours

The West Valley Transit Service Authority (WVTA) has increased service on the Ontario-Upland route 9:40 a.m.-3:40 p.m. during the holiday season. Two minibuses will be added to the route to provide service every 30 minutes at any pick up point on the route.

The addition of the two minibuses to the route will increase service and relieve the need for people to stand on the bus or be left at the bus stop when the bus is fully loaded. The existing schedule will remain in effect with an extra bus coming one-half hour after the regular times during the 9:40 a.m.-3:40 p.m. period. Passenger fares will remain the same.

For information on west valley routes call the west valley dispatchers office, 988-1215.

State names five points of interest

Local historical sites noted

By Lynne Locke

The state Historical Resources Commission has approved five local sites as points of historical interest, according to Dr. Gerald Smith, director of the San Bernardino County Museum.

The historical points of interest include the Chaffey Communities Cultural Center, 525 W. 18th St.;

Madonna of the Trail monument, Foothill Boulevard and Euclid Avenue; Grainger Hyer House, 18th Street and Euclid Avenue; Harwood House, 15th Street and Euclid Avenue; and the San Antonio Heights stone powerhouse, northeast of Mountain Avenue and Park Boulevard.

The Chaffey Communities Cultural Center is the former St. Mark's Episcopal Church which stood at F Street and Euclid Avenue before it was moved to the present site, according to Smith.

The church was built in 1911 by A.P. Benton, who also built the Mission Inn, Riverside.

A cross above the former altar and murals of the shields of the apostles are highlights of the building. Smith said artifacts of early West End history, now housed in the museum are as important as the building.

The Madonna of the Trail, dedicated in 1929 by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), is a five-ton algonite statue honoring the pioneer mothers, Smith said. The monument is the westernmost of 12 statues erected on the Old National Trail used by explorers and pioneers.

The Grainger Hyer house was built in the 1880s by John Osborn for Dr. Grainger Hyer, a retired physician from Mt. Vernon, N.Y. D. J. Cameron, former mayor of Upland, also owned and lived in the house for a time, according to Smith.

The three-story house has been known for its gardens, eight bedrooms, six fireplaces and one bathroom located on the first floor.

The Harwood House, built in 1890 by Dr. Elwood Chaffey, was owned by Charles E. Harwood, who was involved with his brother Alfred in the original North Ontario Land and Improvement Co. Harwood founded Drury College in the Midwest, was vice president of Ontario Community Bank and president of San Antonio Water Company Smith noted. Harwood also was the first president of Upland Lemon Growers Association.

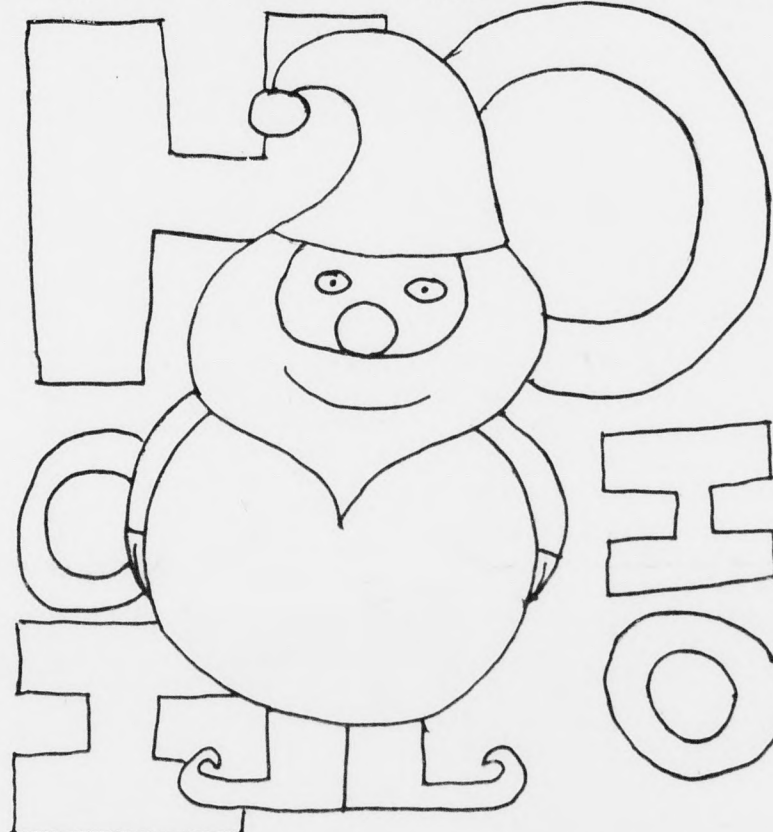

The stone powerhouse was constructed in 1896 by Ontario Electric Company to provide electricity for the railroad that replaced the mule-car system and for electricity throughout Ontario and Upland, according to Smith.

It was constructed with stone walls and turrets and now is surrounded by trees and vines.

Smith said designation as a point of historical interest recognizes the significance of local landmarks but does not provide any funds for purchase or restoration.

Smith said community members can formulate a self-guided historical tour which would include the five official points of interest as well as other significant landmarks in Upland.

Self-guided tours use directional signs and pamphlets to direct people to points of interest in a community. Smith noted the development of such a tour would be appropriate for a Bicentennial project.

HOLIDAY EDITION — Upland High School ninth grader Steve Coughlin's jolly Santa is a sample of artwork, poetry, stories and letters to Santa which will be featured in the Upland News holiday edition Wednesday. Creative work by elementary, junior high and high school students will be included.

Ticktocker philanthropic projects displayed

Charity League holds Christmas Tea

The Victorian-red and antique-white color scheme of the Wilfred MacSweeney home in Ontario was the setting for the annual National Charity League, Foothill Chapter, Mother-Daughter Christmas Tea. Red poinsettias adorned the entrance of the MacSweeney home and bouquets of roses and carnations were set amid Victorian antiques.

Patronesses and their Ticktocker daughters were greeted by President, Mrs. MacSweeney; fourth vice president, Mrs. Jack Pfeiffer; first vice president, Mrs. Russell Schulze; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William McGurty; president elect, Mrs. Charles Abell; recording secretary, Mrs. Donald White; and vice president of National Charity League Council, Mrs. Herschel Glenn.

During the afternoon guests viewed the philanthropic projects completed by the Ticktockers.

Recipients of the gift projects are several valley charities including Casa Colina, Home of the Angels, Ontario-Pomona Association for Retarded Citizens (OPARC) Pacific State Hospital, Santa Claus Inc., Pilgrim Place, Upland Convalescent Hospital, and San Antonio Community Hospital.

Senior Ticktockers received guests, poured tea and assisted in the philanthropy display rooms.

Twelfth-grade Ticktockers include: Stephanie Anton, Mary Kate Clinton, Janet Herbers, Teri Hutchinson, Susan Johnson, Susan Pfeiffer, Cynthia Scheel, Sharon Snider, Tammy Weber and Wendy White.

Pouring tea were the Mmes. Edward Duffy and Glenn, advisory board members; John Hooval and Leo Lucas, sponsors; and Jerene Appleby Harnish, honorary patroness.

Eleventh-grade Ticktockers responsible for replenishing the tea table were Elizabeth Van Antwerp, Kenna Ogg, Karen Day, Le Ann Henderson, Kristyn Scott, Maylene Missakian, Cynthia Abell, Wendy Smothers, Cynthia Jaffee and Victori Scholl. Kimberly Freedle, Jane McPherson and Allison Waller assisted with wraps.

Serving tea sandwiches and cookies were tenth-grade Ticktockers Cathy Riddle, Staci

Iles, Denise Phillips, Eleanor Fitzgibbons, Jan Clinton, Tina Clinton, Judy Symonds, Jeanne McGurty, Emily Gacsaly and Mikko Mayeda.

Ninth-grade Ticktockers assisting in the kitchen were Kelly Shobe, Kelly Smothers, Peggy Gambill, Sara Cheverton, Suzi Waldrop, Pat Robinson, Lisa Tomlinson and Nancy McPherson.

Mrs. Jack Pfeiffer coordinated the holiday event.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS — National Charity League Ticktockers surrounded by handmade stuffed animals include (from left) Tracey Phillips, Tricia Robinson, Kenna Ogg and Jennie Dingle. The toys will be distributed by Santa Claus Inc. as Christmas presents for West End children.

Ticktockers also made comforters, layettes, slippers, bibs, wall hangings, scrapbooks, and night gowns which are being distributed to area charities including Casa Colina, Upland Convalescent Hospital and Pilgrim Place. (Photo by Lynne Locke).

The News

Upland News carriers will be calling on residents through the next week for collections. Although subscriptions are voluntary, the 50 cents requested per month adds to their monthly earnings and encourages reliable, courteous service.

Bilingual teacher Julia Arias (right) uses a flannel board to tell the story of Chicken Little during preschool story time in Spanish 1 p.m. each Tuesday at Los Olivos Recreation Center. The children (from left) Chris Perez, Frank Hernandez and Frank Martinez listen carefully as Mrs. Arias tells, in Spanish and English, about a chicken who said, "El cielo se esta cayendo." (The sky is falling.)

Arthur Benvenidez (below) points to the leaves that fell on the chicken's head. Mrs. Arias said story time helps preschoolers learn to pay attention and enlarges both their Spanish and English vocabularies. Upland Library has a collection of Spanish language books which can be checked out by local residents. Mrs. Arias is a member of the Friends of the Upland Library.

DAR to sale plate

Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR), San Antonio chapter has commissioned a 10-inch Bicentennial plate commemorating Upland's Madonna of the Trail, which stands at Foothill Boulevard and Euclid Avenue.

The DAR plate includes the history of the Madonna on the back as well as the Madonna sketch by artist Eloise Wysock, member of Mid-Valley Arts League.

Proceeds of the limited-edition plate will support a statewide DAR Bicentennial project to commission life-size redwood sculptures of a padre and a revolutionary foot soldier. The two statues will be dedicated in San Diego's Presidio Park in January.

The San Antonio and Los Serranos chapters of the DAR were instrumental in bringing the Madonna of the Trail to Upland.

The statue, which was dedicated Feb. 1, 1929, is the western-most of 12 monuments across the nation honoring the pioneer mothers.

The five-ton algonite statue marks the National Old Trail used by both explorers and settlers.

The Bicentennial plate is available at Upland Travel Bureau, Ontario Library, Wight Jeweler and Ontario Chamber of Commerce.

For information call Mrs. Joseph Visnak, 982-7898, or Mrs. Joe H. Glasson, 987-2323, or any DAR member.

Nostalgia

With our Bicentennial approaching, there is a definite wave of nostalgia sweeping the nation.

Great interest in America's past and memories are being remembered and relived in many ways — and garden plantings are certainly not being excluded.

Grant to aid in training of nursing aides

A government grant, designed to train working nursing assistants to upgrade to LVNs, under the Equivalency Section of the Vocational Nursing Practice Act, was awarded to United Health Careers Institute of San Bernardino by CETA (Comprehensive Employment and Training Act) under Title I funding.

"The grant will cover payment of tuition and textbooks for qualified nursing assistants, who continue working in the field, while training," says Nancy Sedlak, UHCI administrator.

"The three requirements to enter training are:

- "1. Personal qualifications (personal interview)
- "2. Academic potential (score successfully on screening tests)
- "3. Sufficient paid work experience in an acute hospital.

"Any motivated nursing assistant willing to dedicate a year to training while working, and wishing to find out if he or she would qualify for admission to the program, should call the United Health Careers Institute in San Bernardino, 884-8891 or 824-1531, ext. 40, and ask for an appointment.

BICENTENNIAL PLATE — Mrs. Lawrence P. St. Amant, a Daughter of the American Revolution (DAR), San Antonio chapter, displays the group's Bicentennial plate commemorating Upland's Madonna of the Trail, the western-most of 12 monuments honoring pioneer mothers. Proceeds from sale of the plate will be used to commission life-size redwood sculptures of a padre and a revolutionary foot soldier. The sculptures, which are a state DAR Bicentennial project, will be dedicated in San Diego's Presidio Park in January. The plate is available at Upland Travel Bureau or by calling Mrs. Joseph Visnak, 982-7898. (Photo by Lynne Locke)

Free safe deposit boxes during our Montclair Grand Opening.

Normally you'd need a $1,000 minimum balance to qualify for a free safe deposit box. But until December 31, 1975, we're giving them away when you open a new savings account at our Montclair and Ontario offices. It's absolutely free for as long as you keep your account active.

And once you have an account with us, you can take advantage of the many other services we offer. Like free American Express Travelers Cheques (we pay the fee), free money orders and free use of our community room for club and social meetings.

Telephone Cash Transfer Service.

Another advantage of saving with us is our telephone cash transfer service.

It allows you to conveniently transfer cash from your Santa Fe Federal savings account and your bank checking account by telephone. So you can now earn 5 1/4% interest on the money you pay bills with and that is higher interest than any bank pays for similar accounts (you must maintain a $1,000 minimum balance). We also offer an Auto-Teller and a night depository for your convenience. Our hours are 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.

Stop in now at our new Montclair office or the Ontario office, enjoy some refreshments and find out about our complete savings and loan services.

We've been in business for more than 85 years and we've made a lot of friends. We're hoping you'll become one too.

Christmas through creative writing, art

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following poems, stories and essays are representative of the creative work about the holidays that will be published in the Christmas Eve issues of the Montclair Tribune, the Cucamonga Times and the Upland News. All of the material, including art work, has been written or drawn by students in elementary, junior high and high schools in the communities of Montclair, Upland, Alta Loma and Cucamonga.

Santa Claus

Look at the man in the warm, red coat
with a big, white beard
like a billy goat.
Look at his hat
with the fuzzy, white puff.
You can tell just by looking that he isn't real tuff.
Listen to him laugh
a deep "Ho, Ho, Ho, Ho."
He always is happy
as he glides through the snow.
Who is this man?
No need to pause!
Everyone knows
it's SANTA CLAUS!

Christmas Is a Time

Christmas is a special time,
A time for sharing love.
It's a time for giving thanks
To God for all things from above.

It's a time for bringing pleasure
Into everybody's soul
It's a time to make peace
Not into pieces, but a whole.

It's a time to be happy.
A time to be free.
It's a time to be together.
A time to say, "That's Me!"

It's a time for surprises,
A time for suspense.
It's a time for anticipation,
And a time for all those wonderful presents.

But the joy is in giving
And sharing with others
The reasons for celebrating
The birth of our Christian brother.

The Christmas Tree

There stood a pine tree
Straight and tall
Swaying with the wind
And trying not to fall
While getting frosted by the snow.
He hopes he will become A Christmas tree
For all the people to see.

Now, there he stands
Bright and shiny
With strings of lights and tinsel.
All the children gather around
To see the beautiful sight.
They wish it could look that way
All through the year,
Cause, just the sight of it
Spreads a little cheer.

Mary Ann Vince

What is Christmas?

What is Christmas? I don't know.
I know it happens
when there's a lot of snow.
something special happens at night
When Daddy tucks me in real tight.
Just wait and see.
You'll soon find out
What Christmas is all about.

Christmas Is the Time of Year

Christmas is the time of year.
And it makes me so happy to see People so happy
and full of good cheer
Gathered 'round a Christmas tree.

Christmas is the time of year
When all the stockings are hung,
When Santa's big night
is drawing near.
And when Christmas carols are sung

Christmas Day

The church bells were ringing in the square.
I heard the hoofbeats of Nelly,
the mare.
It was Christmas day,
and I was so glad.
But that day I learned that Santa was Dad.

I tiptoed out to the living room.
I didn't want to go out too soon.
Then suddenly my feet
took control over me.
I had to see.
I had to see.

I stopped short;
I rubbed my eyes.
The stories of Santa
were all lies.
Not one, not one present
under the tree.
Not one present,
not one for me!

I couldn't help crying.
I've asked him for things
That are only fit,
only fit for a king.
Then suddenly I felt
a tap on my shoulder.
I looked up, and there was my Dad and I felt colder.

I had to tell him everything:
About the presents
and the doll that sings.
He looked at me
with his eyes of blue.
He told me the stories of Santa weren't true.

"The only Santa," he said,
"that ever was,
Is not the man named
Santa-Claus.
I am Santa.
forget the toys,
Let's think of God's love,
and let's shout for joy!"

Thinking About Christmas

When I think of Christmas
I think of toys
But I guess that's normal
For most boys.
I think of turkey
Sitting on the platter
That tastes so good.
It quiets the chatter.
I think of Santa
Coming in his sleigh
Leaving toys and games
For us to play.
I think of waking up
Early to find
All the surprises
Santa left behind.

Christmas?

Christmas is the time of year
When the stores all make their money.
The way they distort
The Christmas theme
Really isn't funny.

They drill into the little girls and boys
The important thing about Christmas is the toys
Although many
may believe it,
I could really take it
or leave it.

Christmas in My Home Town

Steve Stanier
Eighth grade
St. Joseph's School

Christmas in my home town,
Chesterton, Indiana is a very happy time because our town is small and there isn't the rush as in a big city.

The best thing is going outside and shoveling the snow off the sidewalks and going down to the lake and ice skating and playing hockey.

But best of all is waking up on Christmas morning. It's cold, so I go outside to get some wood and I put it in the fireplace.

I just look out the window and watch the snow fall and look at the trees and houses with their Christmas lights flashing.

I watch the people going to church and getting stuck in the snow. Then somebody comes and helps and they would be shaking hands.

And I say to myself, "That's the Christmas spirit."

That Christmas Morning

Diane Marangio
Eighth grade
St. Joseph's School

Ellen was a young girl who didn't have much. She didn't really wish for anything but to be happy in life.
She was cute in her own way with long hair and freckles. She had no brothers but two younger sisters.

Christmas was just around the corner. Ellen realized her Dad was engaged in business back in Minnesota and wouldn't be back before Christmas.

Her mother tried to keep the younger ones from missing their father too much. She needed Ellen's help a lot now because the children were beginning to get irritable.

Ellen had to think of something to do on Christmas morning that would be fun but meaningful. That was something their father did for them every Christmas.

On the last day before vacation,
Dec. 19, Ellen had a great plan that could really work out good if she kept her imagination working and didn't lose her enthusiasm.

She couldn't wait for school to be dismissed. As soon as it was, she raced home.

She gathered the things she needed, which were paper, a pen, a stocking full of goodies, and a nativity set she had received as a gift the year before.

She made out clues to hide in, or under, objects in the house. The clues led to other clues, as if hunting for a buried treasure. But they led to the nativity and the stocking full of goodies, which was the prize.

On Christmas Eve she hid two sets of clues so each of the kids would have their own track to follow. The one to reach the nativity first would win.

Christmas morning was quiet except for the whispering and footsteps Ellen heard when she awoke.

She crept into the living room and saw her two sisters kneeling over the nativity looking at it with wonderous and joyous eyes, never lifting them once to look up.

Ellen heard her Mom come into the hall and watch them with eyes
as cheerful as Ellen's.

Christmas

Sheila Newman
Eighth grade
St. Joseph's School

I'm sure all of you know what
Christmas is: Santa Claus, presents,
Christmas trees, light, plus a hundred other things.

But did you ever stop to think about what started Christmas? It wasn't some big store somewhere or a little old guy in his sleigh.

It was a baby. This particular baby didn't come into a very warm, friendly world. In fact, he had quite a problem finding some place to sleep. His wasn't a world of pretty bows and shining paper.

So while you are opening presents on your happy Christmas morning, think of the little child that gave this all to us.

CONCERN award presented

Hospital saves on energy

Edna J. Blosser of Upland has been promoted to manager of office services at the corporate headquarters of Aerojet General Corp., El Monte. She has been an executive secretary since 1973. She and her husband, C. O. Blosser, live at 1062 Golden Rain St.

Pomona Valley Community Hospital has earned a Southern California Gas Co. commercial CONCERN award for significantly reducing its consumption of natural gas and electricity.

The hospital introduced a major energy conservation program early last year. During 1974, annual consumption of electricity dropped 15 per cent, or 11 million cubic feet annually.

These energy savings were responsible for lowering the hospital's 1974 utility bills by nearly $37,000.

Despite the fact that a building addition completed in late 1974 nearly doubled the facility's floorspace, the hospital continues to record significant energy savings.

The energy conservation program at Pomona Valley Community Hospital was formulated by Robert Burwell, hospital president and administrator, and R.L. "Pete" Peterson, director of engineering services.

Under the program, the hospital engineering staff disconnected a number of unnecessary incandescent light fixtures, lowered the temperature setting of most hot water heater from 140 to 105 degrees and shut off several laundry room exhaust fans at night and on holidays.

GOP convention

Members of the Chaffey Community Republican Women Federated played a predominant role in the recent convention of the California Federation of Republican Women, Southern Division, at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles.

Martha Chapman, Rose Kelber and Ina Petokas were spotlighted at the recognition luncheon honoring members elected to local offices. Mrs. Chapman is a member of the board of trustees of the Chaffey Union High School District. Mrs.

Kelber is a member of the board of trustees for the Ontario-Montclair School District and Mrs. Petokas is an Upland councilwoman.

Also attending were Mrs. Ernest Hendersen, president, Mrs. James Bradley, Maye Bradley, Helen Jones, Mrs. Dell McDaniel, Mrs. Thomas Parker and Mrs. Robert Walker.

The club received several honors including a diamond award from the national organization.

Sales course scheduled

A crash course to prepare persons for the real estate salesman's license examination has been programmed for the winter quarter by Chaffey College on campus and in Corona.

Two on-campus classes will be offered from 6 to 10 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting Jan. 6 and Jan. 8 respectively. Another class is slated for the same hours on Wednesdays, starting Jan. 7, at Corona High School.

Information on registration procedures may be obtained from the admissions office here. The telephone numbers are 987-1737, 822-4484 and 735-0242.

A TAX BREAK FOR WORKING FOLKS.

If you're a wage earner and you're not covered by a private pension or retirement plan, you can now reduce your taxable income and save up to $1500 per year Federal tax-free until you retire.

What's more, the interest you earn can also be accumulated tax-free until retirement.

It's called the Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It's been enacted into law so that you may have an opportunity to build a more secure future for yourself and your family.

Opening an IRA account is as easy as opening a savings account.

So begin right now to enjoy this Federal tax-sheltered savings program and help yourself to financial independence in your retirement years. At Foothill.

Start your IRA before December 31 for your 1975 Federal Tax Deduction.

25 years

Ethel Climenhaga of Upland has been recognized for 25 years of service in Christian education by the California Association of Christian Schools (CACS), an organization of 408 private Christian schools in California.

Miss Climenhaga, who is business education teacher at Western Christian Schools, taught at Upland College from 1947 until it closed in 1962. She also taught at Heston College, Kansas.

Mark Landrey, superintendent at Western Christian Schools, commented, "Miss Climenhaga is deserving of any honor she receives. All of our students for the last 20 years have had typing from Ethel Climenhaga."

Many have returned years later to seek her out and tell of the impact she had on their lives. She is now teaching the children of her former students," he added.

She graduated from Goshen College, Ind. with a major in business and English and earned a master's degree in business education from Highlands University, N.M.

She serves on the Board of Christian Education and teaches Sunday school at Upland Brethren in Christ Church.

Top seniors

Nine West End high school seniors have been honored for academic achievement at the fourth Recognition Award Program for Outstanding High School Seniors held at the University of California, Riverside.

Alta Loma High School honorees include James Eagle, chemistry; Carl Chesbrough, math; and Doug Levy physics. Students from Montclair High School are Anna Lubatti, chemistry; Kwei Hsuing Wu, math; and John Kubeha, physics.

Upland High School students include Douglas DeYoung chemistry; David Sener, math; and Don Borchert, physics. The students were nominated for the honor by their teachers and counselors.

Honored

American Legion Auxiliary Unit 112 recently honored members who have served 40 years or more. Mrs. E.C. Vinnedge, a past president, is the club's 55-year member. Fifty-year members include the Mmes. Nels Flau, Isabel Graves, Ray Olive, Vincent Roth, Clem Svoboda, Wilma Walkinshaw and J.W. Gaylor. Honored for 45 years were the Mmes. Sophia Garrison, Jerene Appleby Harnish, Faith Marshall, Maude Nafzgar, R. Fred Price and Hazel Whitehouse.

Forty-year members include the Mmes. Robert Hooper, Erma Mosher, Charlotte Taylor, Joseph Downey, Miles Phillips, George Steward, Robert Taylor and R.N. Traver. Unit President Cora Johnson was assisted by past presidents, the Mmes. John B. Long, Harold Roossien, Margaret Dickson, J. Tilden Abram, Max Rowland, Arthur A. Novelli and Mrs. Vinnedge.

Cub awards

Upland Cub Scout Pack 607 presented Webelo aquanaut and citizenship awards to Bill Bradley, Matt Fehn, Kevin Hesselstine, Mike Keslosky, Wayne Moga and Mike Perker.

Jeff Hamer and Danny Thomas received aquanaut awards and Mike Norton earned the citizenship award.

Essay winners

Three Pioneer Junior High School students have earned honors in the "Goals for a Better America" essay contest sponsored by the National Association of American Pen Women, Claremont branch.

John Anderson placed second, and Chris Novak and Kathy Gibbons received honorable mentions in the junior high school division. The students will read their essays at the February meeting of the Pen Women.

Bar exam

Four West End residents have passed the fall 1975 General Bar Exam for the California State Bar. They must also pass a professional responsibility examination before being admitted to law practice in California.

The successful candidates include: Uplanders Alan Tuck Jr. and Wilfred Soelter; Michael Tennant of Alta Loma and Karl Knudson of Cucamonga.

Gifts

Upland Recreation Department has received a camera from Maud Bonillas, records for developmentally disabled dances from radio station KSOM, and $75 and volunteer help for a Halloween party from the Upland Breakfast Lions.

The Recreation Department is looking for people to coach third-sixth grade basketball teams for the elementary school league.

Buena Vista School needs teenagers and adults to serve as "big sisters" and "big brothers" to mentally retarded children.

To volunteer for either program, call Harry Sippel, supervisor of volunteer services, 985-0994.

chairman of the tournament committee.

Medical pins

Janice Deal and Sonya Madden, both of Montclair, have received their medical receptionist pins from the United Health Careers Institute, San Bernardino. Both are certified in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and are trained in medical terminology, dictaphone, telephone techniques, insurance billing, and patient relations.

Donation

Montclair High School Key Club has donated $100 to the city of Montclair to purchase trees for the Montclair Wilderness Park in the flood control basin on San Bernardino Road. Club members also offered labor to plant the trees.

Manager

Public relations consultant Ruth E. Cam of Upland has been named Southern California campaign manager for Howard L. Gifford, who is running for the U.S. Senate seat presently held by John Tunney.

Mrs. Cain said Gifford is part Indian, "a fighting Sioux who stands for maintaining reservation treaties that have been misused and not held in trust for the signatories." Gifford also believes in "governmental housecleaning" to cut federal misspending, she said.

Scholarship

Upland Recreation Department's 28 majorettes and three drummers won the outstanding entry award at the Fontana Christmas Parade. Judy Tison, who directs the majorette corps and the drummers, said the three drummers were competing for the first time. For information on the majorette or drum corps, call the Recreation Department, 985-0994.

Ambulance crews join paramedics

B and B Ambulance crews will soon join the growing number of paramedic units in the West End.

Bruce Beals and Ben Irvin, owners of the company, received a letter in May indicating they had been chosen by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation to receive a grant which would pay for the biomedical telemetry mobile unit in one of their ambulances and training for three men.

Brett Ray, Gonzalo Chuquirima and Paul Kent have undergone nearly four months of intensive training and will soon be certified paramedics.

In addition to the company's Ontario office, B and B has offices in Montclair and Upland.

The paramedic program B and B will operate probably won't go into effect until San Antonio Community Hospital is prepared to begin operation as a base station hospital.

However, B and B will work with Ontario Community Hospital and Doctors' Hospital of Montclair, which will also operate as base station hospitals.

Beals believes paramedics will be especially useful in remote areas of Cucamonga, Alta Loma, Etiwanda and Mt. Baldy where injuries occur and victims are a long way from a hospital.

Ray, Chuquirima and Kent spent most of their internship at Riverside General Hospital. They also had on-the-job training with Springs Ambulance in Palm Springs and will finish their training with Goodhew Ambulance in Riverside. They are currently in training at San Antonio Community Hospital.

Beals noted that the machinery used by the paramedics is portable so can be used in different ambulances and can be carried into areas where vehicles could not maneuver.

Once the program begins between B and B and San Antonio Community Hospital, B and B will act as a training ground for paramedics from other cities. Nurses from the hospital will also take part in a ride-along program to get acquainted with field operations, Beals said.

In January, Beals said he plans to purchase a new paramedically equipped rig and start three more ambulance attendants into training at Loma Linda University Medical Center.

B and B handles about 500 calls a month now—a far cry from the 139 they were handling when Beals bought the formerly named Ingram Ambulance Service in 1967.

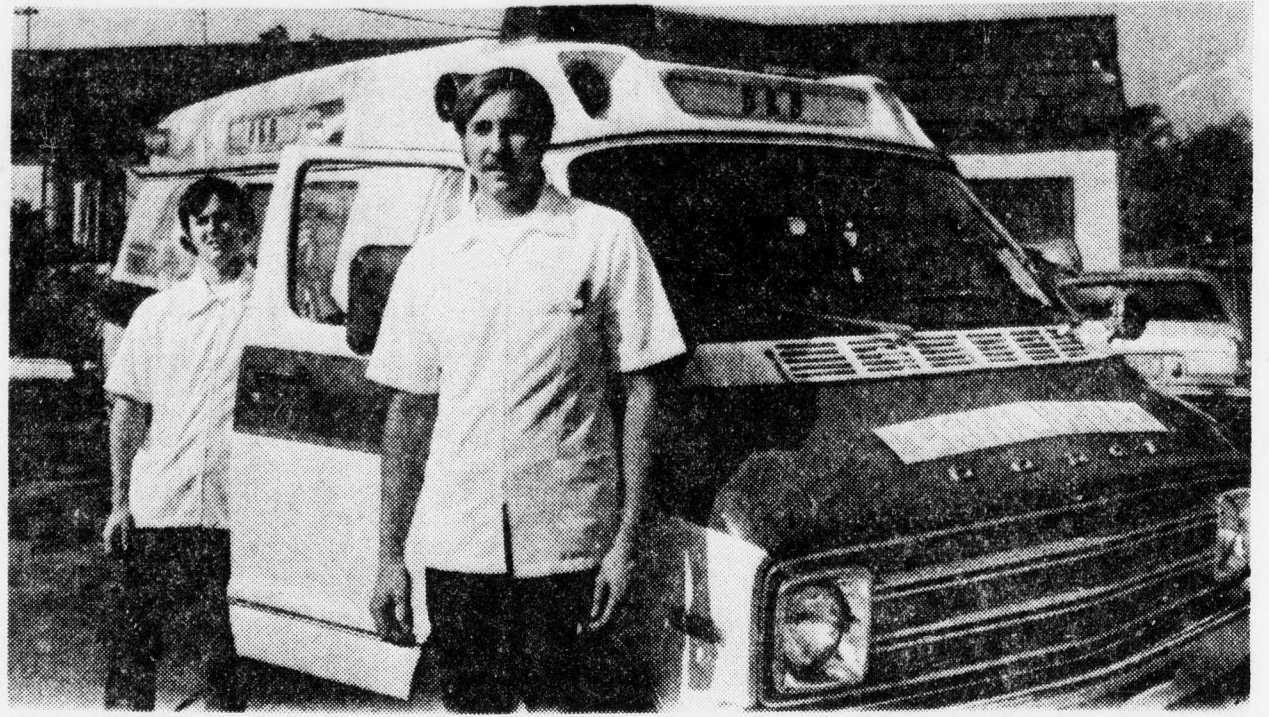

About 300 of those runs are transfers of patients.

Of the remaining 200, about half are calls to carry patients who have suffered heart attacks or other natural disease problems.

The other half are accident, fire, shooting, overdose or other victims of violence, Beals said.

In 1967, the company carried 1,696 patients. Last year, they carried 4,806. And Beals expects that number to grow to more than 6,000 this year.

Paramedics will be called on to assist on at least 25 per cent of those calls, Beals said. And the number of lives which will be saved will never be known, he added.

Paul Kent, left, and Brett Ray will soon be qualified certified paramedics for B and B Ambulance, which has offices in Ontario, Montclair and Upland. Through a grant, the firm was able to outfit a rig and train three men. Paramedic operation is expected to begin when San Antonio Community Hospital begins operating their base station.

Chaffey College center schedules class on opportunities for women

A class for women on their educational and employment opportunities will be offered at the Chaffey College Ontario-Montclair Center in the winter quarter.

The class is slated for 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting Jan. 6, with registration at the center from 4 to 8 p.m. on Dec. 16. Students may also register Dec. 10 to 12 at the Alta Loma campus.

The course title is "Exploring Alternatives for Women."

Covered will be such points as aptitude testing for career choices, academic and vocational possibilities, traditional and non-traditional fields for women and campus orientation.

Another point studied will be the increasing roles of women in "a man's world."

The instructor will be Jeanne Hamilton, coordinator of the Chaffey College Women's Center.

Cancer experts provide latest facts to doctors

A team of experts is providing the latest information on cancer diagnosis and treatment to physicians in small communities, who cannot take the time to travel to large research centers.

A pilot program co-sponsored by the Los Angeles County University of Southern California Comprehensive Cancer Center and the American Cancer Society recently was presented to 96 physicians in five hospitals in Upland, Fontana, Palm Springs, Barstow and Las Vegas and to 25 nurses in three of the communities.

Representing the LAC-

USC Cancer Center was Deborah McAbee of Los Angeles, administrative assistant for the Regional Activities Program. She was accompanied by radiologist Wes Reynolds and H. J. Sannan, M.D., medical vice president for the western region of the American Cancer Society. Both from Denver, the two men have been involved in the planning and administration of similar programs.

According to Robert J. McKenna, M.D., of Los Angeles, director of Regional Activities for the LAC-USC Cancer Center and associate clinical professor of surgery at USC, the traveling team approach has been attempted over the past three years in Alaska, Wyoming, Idaho, and parts of Texas, as part of the American Cancer Society's effort to update cancer care in remote areas.

"Many small communities have only one doctor, who is too busy treating patients to take time off for advanced education at a large medical center," he said.

"Continuing education seminars, usually in central areas and near a sponsoring institution, are costly to put on and don't always reach the primary care physician who cannot leave his practice."

"The team is there primarily to answer specific questions and discuss individual cases, rather than to conduct formal seminars."

Retire rich.

THE SECURITY RETIREMENT PLAN... an Individual Retirement Account.

Put up to $1500 each year in a tax shelter.
Earn the Bank's top interest.
Save taxes on the interest, too.

You can build a small fortune, and use it to supplement your Social Security retirement benefits.

Your Age Now	Total Deposited by Age 65	Total Interest Earned by Age 65	Your Total Nest Egg by Age 65*
30	$52,500	+	$207,175
35	$45,000	+	$127,592
40	$37,500	+	$75,033
45	$30,000	+	$41,973
50	$22,500	+	$20,639
55	$15,000	+	$8,252

*The above figures assume that you contribute $1,500 each year with no withdrawals and that your money earns 7.5% annual interest, the current maximum rate of interest allowed by law.

Give yourself a tax break. In addition to building a substantial nest egg, the Security Retirement Plan also allows you a considerable reduction in your current Federal income tax payments. The plan also allows you to defer paying taxes on the interest you earn.

How to make your savings snowball. Each year, you can put aside up to $1500 or 15% of your annual compensation for personal services—whichever is less—into your Security Retirement Plan. Save as much or as little as you wish.

Your savings accumulate and grow from the day of deposit. When they total $1000, you can have your money automatically invested in a Maxi-Growth Account, where it earns the highest interest rates permitted by law from the day we invest it.

What's so special about the Security Retirement Plan. It's flexible. Choose from two options; The Maxi-Growth or the Do-It-Yourself Plan.

To receive the full benefits of the Security Retirement Plan, put your qualifying savings—in a lump sum or in periodic deposits—in an Accumulation/Maxi-Growth account. The money you deposit earns interest from the day of deposit at our current regular savings rate. Each time your account reaches $1000, we automatically transfer those funds to your Maxi-Growth account.

If you prefer to do your own planning, choose the Do-It-Yourself option. Deposit your Security Retirement Plan funds in a lump sum each year. Or, make deposits throughout the year ($100 minimum). Specify that the money you deposit is for your retirement, and put it into the high interest earning Security Retirement Plan that pays selected rates of interest. If you like, we can tie the maturity dates of your savings to the day you retire, assuring you of maximum earnings and immediate availability of your savings on your retirement date.

How to start getting rich. Almost 50% of American workers qualify. You can start your Security Retirement Plan at any of the nearly 500 offices of Security Pacific Bank. We'll give you a free booklet that describes the plan in greater detail, and we'll be glad to answer any of your specific questions personally. The sooner you start, the richer we can make you.

'Y' countdown to tipoff time

It's time to count-down to tip off for YBA basketball as registration begins for America's newest concept in a youth sports program at the West End YMCA.

YBA basketball, developed by the National Basketball Players Association and the YMCA, is open to boys and girls. Practice will begin immediately following the registration period, which ends Dec. 19, with league play slated January through March.

Players will receive uniforms, a manual with all the rules, tips from the NBA professionals and a national YBA basketball membership card.

"While this is a basketball program, the ultimate purpose is a values concept to improve the quality of life for all young people, their parents and coaches," said Guy Fish, Physical Director.

The YBA basketball program is nationwide. NBA players will participate in training workshops, clinics, films and other events reflecting the goals of the program, according to Paul Silas of the Boston Celtics, president of the players group.

Nationally, the YMCA expects more than 200,000 boys and girls to participate during the 1975-76 season, with upwards of 1,000,000 in the next five years. The West End "Y" expects 100 players this year.

Merchants and other businessmen are being sought as sponsors to help defray team costs.

Park builds huge roller coaster

VALENCIA — Looking for all the world like a mammoth Erector set, tailored to fit the Jolly Green Giant, 650 separate components of what will soon be the largest steel roller-coaster ever built have arrived at Magic Mountain.

As previously announced, the amusement/entertainment park will, next spring, premiere the ultimate "white-knuckler" thrill ride, The Great American Revolution, an unparalleled half-mile of thrills and chills, climaxed by the only 36-degree vertical loop anywhere.

Upon arrival at the park, a crew of twelve, working with two giant cranes and a fork lift, unloaded the giant parts in five days. Magic Mountain carefully prepared for the Revolution's arrival by taking over a giant parking lot and painting special grids on the asphalt to house each individual section. As construction begins, each piece can be easily located and moved to the erection site, near the park's main entrance.

Light a candle

Scent house

To fill a house with the sweet smells of gingerbread, cranberries, nut bread, hollyberry and fresh pine this holiday season, you have only to light a candle.

Seasonal decorators, Christmas chefs and non-cooks alike can achieve a festive atmosphere throughout the home by strategically placing scented candles. A gingerbread man candle burning in the kitchen could whet the family's appetite. Scented round candles can be used to decorate the hearth or mantle along with votive lights; and unscented tapers give an elegant touch to the dinner table.

To make candles last through the holiday season, Dave Albright, candle research expert, has these suggestions:

Char candle wicks before a party or dinner and candles will be easier to light. Keep candle wicks trimmed to one-half inch.

Remove debris or match particles from the wick area before burning. Otherwise the particles may ignite and cause the candle to burn improperly.

Hold your finger in front of the candle flame when blowing it out to keep hot wax from splattering.

'The Baker's Wife' to open

"The Baker's Wife," David Merrick's new musical production, will have its world premiere here when it opens the Los Angeles Civic Light Opera's 1976 season on May 11, prior to Broadway. Based on the classic Marcel Pagnol French film which became the motion picture sensation of the early '40s, the musical has book by Joseph Stein, author of "Fiddler on the Roof," with music and lyrics by Stephen Schwartz, composer of "Godspell" and "Pippin." Joseph Hardy will direct.

Taken from an incident in a novel by Jean Giono, "The Baker's Wife" was adapted for the screen and directed by Pagnol, one of France's leading playwrights and film-makers. It was a captivating story of picturesque characters in a little French village and the scandal created when their incomparable but temperamental baker (played by the legendary comedian, Raimu) discovers that his wife has run off with a younger man. The superb vignettes of village life, a Pagnol trademark, coupled with his uncanny knack for taking audiences from laughter to tears and back again in an instant, won the film an accolade as one of the Ten Best of the Year from the New York Times which dubbed it "scandalously funny, the kind of story Frenchmen were born to tell." The New York Sun concurred, calling it "hilariously funny and mighty naughty, but comedy with a heart."

"The Baker's Wife" was the first foreign film to hurdle the language barrier and become a great popular success in this country. In its first seven months at New York's minuscule 282-seat World Theatre it played to more than a quarter-million people and was listed as the most profitable French film ever to be shown here. Interestingly, it was produced for a mere $30,000.

Stephen Schwartz, who has written the music and lyrics for this new musical stage version of "The Baker's Wife," last year became the first composer-lyricist in Broadway history to have three hits running simultaneously in New York, when "The Magic Show" opened to join his "Godspell," now in its fifth year, and "Pippin," now in its third. Earlier, he had collaborated with Leonard Bernstein on the English texts for Bernstein's "Mass," and had written the title song for "Butterflies Are Free." Now, in an adroit change of pace, his score for "The Baker's Wife" is in a totally different vein, thanks to the Gallic and rustic elements of the story.

Joseph Stein, who has written the book for "The Baker's Wife," is the author of "Fiddler on the Roof," longest-running musical in Broadway history, and he later adapted it for the screen. Among his many other stage works are "Take Me Along," "Plain and Fancy" and "Enter Laughing" for which he also wrote the screenplay and which he is now adapting into a musical which will star Robert Morse as the would-be actor whose parents encourage him to become a pharmacist instead. For television, his comedy has enhanced The Sid Caesar Show, Your Show of Shows and the NBC Comedy Hour.

Nature's own toothbrushes

Fibrous foods are nature's own toothbrushes.

They require thorough chewing during which they clean teeth and surrounding soft tissue. Dentists sometimes call them "detergent foods." Fresh fruits and raw vegetables are examples.

Cookies, crackers and many candies are called "impacting foods." They require little chewing and tend to cling to the teeth and pack into the fissures and grooves.

Because most people eat too many impacting foods and not enough detergent foods, dentists advise that teeth be brushed regularly and carefully with a commercial toothbrush immediately after eating to remove sticky food residues from the teeth. For those who cannot brush immediately after eating, the mouth can be rinsed thoroughly with plain water.

For those who don't brush because toothbrushing is painful to tender gums or teeth, a special toothpaste to block the pain that causes sensitivity can be used, together with a soft-bristled "gentle" toothbrush that effectively cleans teeth.

Sweet, sticky cakes and candies can cause dental pain in those sensitive to them, and a booklet on diet and dental health states that popular candy bars are likely to contain from five to 20 teaspoons of sugar.

Foods that contain "hidden sugar" include canned peaches in syrup, raisins, orange juice, sweet carbonated beverage and chocolate cake with icing.

Grace Lutheran

The Sunday School of Grace Lutheran Church, 2108 N. Euclid Avenue, Upland will lead all members and visitors in a worship program entitled, "Tell It on the Mountain" 7 p.m. Sunday. The service will include singing, color slides, and Biblical dramatizations. The presentation is directed by Kathy Kramer and Bob Nilsen. All area residents are welcome.

Candlelight Christmas Eve services at Grace Lutheran are scheduled for 5 p.m. and 11 p.m. Holy Communion will be celebrated at the earlier service. This service will include a special children's sermon. At each service, the Rev. Mark Wikstrom, pastor, will present a message entitled, "The R.S.V.P. of Christmas."

St. Anthony's

"Hoory! The Christmas Rush Is Over" is the theme of the parish dance to be sponsored by the Altar Rosary Society of St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Upland. The dance will be held 9 p.m. - 1 a.m. Saturday at the Father Joseph Mackey Memorial Hall of Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church, 5303 Orchard St., Montclair. Music for the event will be presented by the Berger Brothers.

According to Mrs. Den DeFrank, chairperson, the dance will be a celebration for the parishioners and their friends who have survived the hustle and bustle of the pre-Christmas rush. The spirit of the dance will be one of enjoyment and relaxation.

Assisting Mrs. DeFrank will be Mrs. William Bertino and Mrs. Joseph Aldern, decorations; Mrs. Jack Firestone and Mrs. Jack Clinton, refreshments; Mrs. Judd Smith, tickets; and Mrs. Robert Monroe, publicity. All parishioners and their friends are invited. Admission is $6 per couple. Tickets will be sold at the door.

'Miracle Rallies'

The Rev. Omar Cabrera will hold "Miracle Rallies" 7 p.m. tonight through Monday in the La Verne College auditorium, 1950 Third St., La Verne. Admission is free.

According to a rally spokesperson, the Rev. Cabrera is "a man of faith who has helped thousands of people to receive a miracle in their lives." Local residents are urged to "hear a message of liberation, bring someone in need of God's healing power."

First Baptist

Dr. E. F. Austin, interim pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Antonio Heights, announced a birthday to Christ offering 11 a.m. Sunday which will highlight and emphasize his sermon, "The First Coming of the Son of God." The choir, under the direction of Ron Christianson, will present music featuring a duet sung by Maurine Ficke and Janece Ledbetter.

Relatives, friends and neighbors of members of the church, 2520 N. Euclid Ave., are invited to attend. Everyone is invited to return at 6 p.m. for Christmas carol singing, musical selection presented by The Trio (Janece Ledbetter, Maurine Ficke and Ron Christianson), and to hear Dr. Austin's sermon, "Prophetic Names of Jesus Christ."

Ontario Deanery

The Ontario Deanery, Diocesan Council of Catholic Women installed officers recently at the Homily of the Mass at the new St. George's Church in Ontario.

Con-celebrants were Pastors Father F. Webber of St. George's parish and Father Phillip O'Carroll of Our Lady of Lourdes, pastor of the newly elected president, Mrs. Arthur A. Novelli.

Invested with Mrs. Novelli were Mmes. Stanley Wiczorek, St. Peter and St. Paul Altar Society, first vice president; John Ganger and Helen Cherry, St. George's, recording secretary; and corresponding secretary; Wm. D. French, Etiwanda, Sacred Heart Altar Society, treasurer. Appointed to serve were the Mmes. Henry Lucas, parliamentarian; Bernard McSweeney, enthronement of the Sacred Heart; and Dennis Wilson, presemnary.

Mrs. Novelli succeeded Mrs. Herbert Minor and asked Mrs. Aloysius Monschien, Chula Vista immediate past president of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, to serve as installing officer. Music for this first ceremony celebrated during the Mass was by Mrs. Madeline Gavran, and members of the adult choir of St. George's.

The Ontario Deanery consists of all organizations from Etiwanda to Los Seranos in San Bernardino County. Representatives of all groups are urged to attend Deanery meetings.

Seventh-day Adventist

The Christmas season will be ushered in at the Covina Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1067 E. Badillo St., with the words and music of Peterson's "Christ is Born" during 9:30 a.m. services Saturday. The church serves San Dimas and La Verne.

Also, children's divisions will perform and begin decoration of the seven-foot Christmas tree. When fully decorated, the tree will glisten with silvery-white cardboard churches containing children's offerings and scores of "greenbacks" in decorative Christmas envelopes from older Sabbath School members.

For a number of years the Adventist Sabbath School has followed the custom of trimming its Christmas tree with cash gifts designated for missions. These gifts are slated for specific projects overseas.

"This, year," reports Florence Duggie, Sabbath School superintendent, "the trimmings on that tree will help build a secondary school on the tiny West Pacific island of Abemana; provide desperately needed new facilities at Aore Adventist Hospital in New Hebrides; and commence educational work in New Caledonia Mission. When these trimmings are removed, the tree will be used to bring Christmas happiness to a needy family."

The Christmas celebration will continue with Monte Smith at the piano and Anna Foss at the organ playing "The Holy City" during services. The annual Christmas program at 7:30 p.m. will begin with a singspiration of Christmas carols and continue with several musical numbers performed by the children. Chester Hickman will sing "O Holy Night", and a youth group will sing to the accompaniment of guitars. A short nativity play by members of the youth division and young marrieds will close the program. The public is invited to attend.

SD Methodist

The chancel choir of the San Dimas United Methodist Church will present "A Song Unending," a cantata by John W. Peterson 7 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited to attend. Peterson is the popular composer of such other cantatas as "A Night of Miracles" and "No Greater Love" which have been performed by the choir in previous years.

The theme of this cantata is that the angelic song heard on the night of the Nativity is ringing still. As Peterson says:

A song unending began that holy night,
A song unending, 'twas sung by angels bright;
Their voices blending in a melody sublime:
'Peace, good will!' It is ringing still
And it will till the end of time.

Invited to be guest soprano soloist is Mrs. Mickie Huigens of the LaVerne Methodist Church. Other soloists will be Mrs. Burch Drake, Dr. Don Toppenberg, and Glenn Welch. Organist is Stan Rummel and the director is Mrs. Ira D. Morgan. Mrs. Morgan holds a master's degree from USC and has taught music in high schools. Rummel is a candidate for the doctor's degree from Claremont Graduate School.

Christ Lutheran

Festive celebration begins Sunday with the 8:15 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. services at Christ Lutheran Church, Francis Avenue near Central, Chino, during which several families and individuals are to be received into membership. It will be Commitment Sunday on which members will bring forward their 1976 Stewardship pledges of time, talent and treasure. Dr. A. L. Plueger will speak on "Christmas and Your Destiny." Bible Classes and the Adult Forum will meet at 9:30 a.m.

"Come, Lord Jesus" is the theme of the Sunday Parish School Christmas Program 7 p.m. Sunday. Treats for all children will be given out afterwards and refreshments for everyone will be served.

Duplicate Christmas Eve Candlelight Services will feature the choir with a cantata entitled, "Night of Miracles," by John W. Peterson. The pastor will present a sermonette, "Your Gift Under the Tree." All worshipers are to remain for refreshments following the services.

Ontario Baptist

The drama group of First Baptist Church of Ontario will present the play, "And Myrrh" by Dorothy Clarke Wilson 6 p.m. Sunday in the church's sanctuary. The drama revolves about the epoch of the wisemen in the Christmas story and is directed by Audrey Lightbody. The cast includes Glen Henderson, Bob Fikes, Steve Williams, Doris Lewis, Arthur Woodman, Ward Woodman, Lisa Metz, Joseph and Catherine Wagner with Geri Vick as narrator. The public is invited.

At the morning service of worship at 10 a.m. Dr. Ralph H. Lightbody will preach a Christmas sermon on the theme, "Have Camel, Will Travel!" Special Christmas anthems will be sung by the Chancel Choir with additional music provided by The His Kids and Handbell choirs. Diana Meekins will be the morning soloist. There will be a service of Believer's Baptism as a part of the worship experience.

Plans have been announced for a Christmas Eve service to be held at 7 p.m.

Breakfast fundraiser to assist thousands

San Gabriel Valley residents will be able to "eat a good meal and feel that they are helping hungry people," at a pancake breakfast 8 a.m.-noon Saturday. Proceeds will go to feed thousands of hungry people through an international Christian humanitarian agency.

The breakfast, which is sponsored by the Christian Students Association of Mt. San Antonio College, will be held in the parking lot of the Valley Community Drive-In Church, 1100 W. Covina Blvd., San Dimas.

Donations of $1.50 for adults and $1 for children will be given to World Vision International for use in its hunger relief and development work in such famine areas of the world as Bangladesh, India and the Sahel region of Africa.

According to Marcia Hirsch at MSAC, the cost of all of the ingredients for the pancake breakfast have been underwritten by area food suppliers and local citizens.

Among the merchants who are donating food for the event are Sal's Bakery in Montclair, the Valencia Bakery in Pomona and Winchell's Donut Shops in Glendora, Covina, Rowland Heights, West Covina and Azusa.

Also contributing food for the breakfast are the Donut

Christmas Wassil Service in DB

The Diamond Bar Friends Church will host a Christmas Wassil Service of music 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday at the church, 1201 S. Brea Canyon Road, Walnut.

This will be the second annual Wassil Service given by the adult choir, children's choir and orchestra. The program will include Christmas music in varied settings, sacred and secular, traditional and contemporary. Selections will be by soloists and smaller groups as well as the choirs.

Soloists will be Ron Kinsman, Karen Simpson and Marlene Tweedie. Organist will be Tim Howard.

Lovely tableaus will depict several Christmas scenes. Guests will be served a hot beverage and holiday dessert as they celebrate Christ's birth with music.

Pastors Ed White and Bob Kenagy and minister of music Larry Cline invite everyone to attend. There will be no admission charge but guests will be encouraged to participate in an offering.

Baptists to hold pageant

Bethany Baptist Church, corner of Monte Vista Avenue and Benito Street, Montclair will hold its second annual Christmas pageant 7:30 p.m. Friday through Tuesday.

Featuring authentic costuming and live animals, members of the cast recreate the saga of Christmas on an outdoor stage nearly 200 feet long. The half-hour pageant is brilliantly lighted and effectively staged with a background of narratives and orchestrations depicting the first Christmas as it happened in Bethlehem 2,000 years ago.

Angels appear to Mary, Joseph and the shepherds tending their sheep on a lonely Judean hillside...a lighted star, 30 feet above the sets, guides wisemen and their camels to the palace of Herod...the innkeeper allows a humble stable behind the village hotel to house the newborn infant whose name is to be called "Prince of Peace."

The audience is advised to dress warmly for the outdoor event, presented without an admission fee as Bethany's Christmas gift to its community.

Other Christmas activities the church has participated in include a float entry in the Pomona Christmas parade Dec. 6, choir sing in the Montclair Plaza Dec. 17, and a musical program at the church Dec. 14 featuring four choirs and the Bethany Bellringers.

Says 'Merry Christmas'

Poinsettia offers greetings

Of all the beautiful flowers available at the holiday season, the one that carols "Merry Christmas!" the clearest of all is the traditional vivid poinsettia.

Most of our Christmas traditions and symbols, such as evergreens, holly and candles, are centuries old, many dating back prior to Christianity. But not the poinsettia! It is a product of the Western world and did not become a part of our Christmas celebration until 1906.

First discovered in 1825 by Dr.

Joel Roberts Poinsett of Charleston, S.C. — he was our first diplomatic officer to Mexico — while walking through the tropical forests of Mexico, the unusual flower intrigued him. Later, when he showed some of his Mexican friends his discovery, they identified it as "Flor de la Noche Buena" (Flower of the Holy Night) or Flame Leaf.

When Dr. Poinsett returned from his mission in Mexico, he visited his friend J.C. Fremont in California and took him a gift of poinsettia cuttings. John Fremont began growing and propagating these cuttings and shared them with his friends and neighbors. Soon, poinsettias were grown by everyone in Fremont's vicinity. He is responsible for starting the plant in the now famous California poinsettia belt, from which plants are shipped all over the United States.

The credit for developing the poinsettia into a popular Christmas flower goes to Albert Ecke, a Swiss farmer who raised vegetables near Los Angeles in the early 1890s. In 1906, Ecke began raising field flowers and became fascinated by the poinsettia. After growing and improving this tropical plant as a hobby, he finally, in 1909, began specializing in poinsettias. In recent years, his son, Paul Ecke, has made Encinitas, a city about 20 miles north of San Diego, the poinsettia capital of the world.

Traditionally, the poinsettia has been a difficult plant to keep flowering in the average home. However, with the introduction of the Paul Mikkelsen variety in 1963, poinsettias entered a new era, says the Society of American Florists. This variety, with its stiff stems and foliage retention character, provided the first so-called "long-lasting" variety of any commercial importance.

The modern Western world's contribution to Christmas traditions, the elegant poinsettia symbolizes the joy of Christmas with its bright leaves and blooms, says the Society of American Florists. The poinsettia became part of our Christmas celebration in 1906.

'Ulcer personality' a myth

EDITOR'S NOTE: Health Tips is a column of the California Medical Education and Research Foundation, prepared and edited by physician members of the California Medical Association. It is reprinted by this newspaper as a public service.

Almost everyone knows someone who has suffered from the pain and indigestion of "stomach" ulcers. This is not surprising since about one out of every 10 at some time in their lives have had a proven ulcer of the stomach or the duodenum (the first part of the gut beyond the stomach).

The "ulcer personality" is probably a myth. Who gets ulcers and why?

Men are more often affected than women, and we are seeing an increased number in adolescents today. Ulcers seem to be much more common in those who have a good deal of stress in their lives and who eat irregularly and hurriedly. Excessive smoking appears to have a detrimental effect on the patient with an ulcer, and alcohol causes more acid to be secreted in the stomach than normal. In the person who already has a built-in likelihood of suffering from ulcers, therefore, either of these and especially both together may precipitate the condition or worsen it when present.

Damage to the lining of the stomach or the duodenum probably is an early change. This lining normally protects the underlying tissues from the acid and the enzymes in the stomach that help digest food. There then develops a raw surface that penetrates deeper into the intestinal wall, causing pain. Occasionally, symptoms such as vomiting blood or black bowel movements may be the first evidence of a previously "silent" ulcer.

Ulcers call for rest, diet and medication. Healing is retarded if emotional stress is not relieved. This may mean considerable change in one's way of life so that not only does one get a good night's sleep, but avoids continual pressure through the day. Smoking should be drastically curtailed, alcohol and peppery foods avoided, and coffee and tea, if used at all, served with plenty of milk.

The many dietary regimes essentially consist of frequent small meals and snacks of easily digested food throughout the day. Milk (skimmed or whole) counteracts the acid secreted by the stomach and is widely used. It may be taken frequently during the day as well as at bedtime and during the night if one awakes. Medication consists of neutralizing antacids and substances that reduce the amount of acid pouring from the stomach. Antacids are preferably taken as liquids and need to be taken frequently. Mild sedatives are often helpful in reducing tension.

Neglected ulcers are always dangerous since they may perforate completely through the wall of the stomach or duodenum and cause peritonitis, may erode into a blood vessel and cause acute severe bleeding, or may produce so much scarring at the outlet of the stomach that food will not easily pass through. These complications may require surgery.

It is necessary to care for one's ulcer not only while it produces pain, but to continue with treatment long after it has apparently subsided. Most ulcers will respond to this kind of approach.

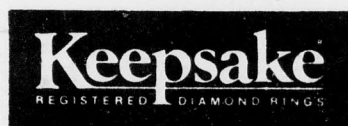

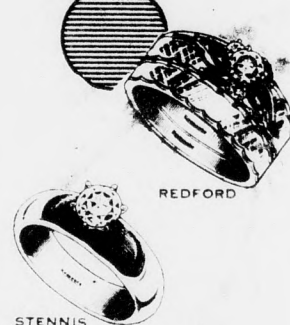

In general, ulcers tend to heal. However, they are signals that special care should be taken lest they recur. Symptoms alone are no guide to healing. A way of life must be found in which those factors which predispose to ulcers can be avoided or minimized. It is useless to hope that "If I ignore them, they'll go away."

BOB LECCE

Both extend their Best Wishes to All this Holiday Season

"THE BLACK BIRD" — French screen star Stephanie Audran makes her American film debut as a seductive, scheming, Shanghai-born White Russian beauty who uses all her charms to remove George Segal from his bird in "The Black Bird," a mystery-comedy spoof from Columbia Pictures, a sequel to "The Maltese

Falcon. Other stars include Lionel Stander, Signe Hasso and, in reprise roles from the 1941 film which starred Humphrey Bogart, Lee Patrick as the secretary Effie, and Elisha Cook Jr. as Wilmer, the mild-mannered gunslinger with the nervous trigger finger.

SAM SPACE JR.—George Segal stars as Sam Spade Jr. in the Rastar Picture, "The Black Bird." In the new motions picture, Segal discovers the statuette of The Maltese Falcon, long-forgotten in the dusty files he inherited from his private-eye father, Sam Sr. He hocks it for a pittance then discovers a number of mysterious strangers would pay any price for the figurine, including the removal of Spade.

'The Black Bird'

Giler spoofs the 'Falcon'

When the late Dashiell Hammett passed along in the early morning hours of Jan. 10, 1961, he left behind a towering legacy in literature's ranks, albeit largely based on a slender base of five volumes.

These five novels, all mysteries and classics of the genre, were written and published within a period of five years between 1929 and 1934. Their titles were: "Red Harvest" (February 1929); "The Dain Curse" (July 1929); "The Maltese Falcon" (February, 1930); "The Glass Key" (April 1931), and "The Thin Man" (January, 1934).

Hammett's movies

Of this listing, the last three were transformed into films. Probably "The Thin Man" most inflated his bank balance for it became a series of films, partly due to the popularity of its wise-cracking married protagonists, Nick and Nora Charles, and their dog, Asta.

Yet, it is "The Maltese Falcon" from the trio with which the public most easily identified Hammett, for its theme or characters have been filmed five times and its fan following easily could encircle the earth.

Now Hammett's thriller comes to the screen again in a comedy sequel based on "The Maltese Falcon" characters. This time it stars George Segal as Sam Spade Jr., in the Rastar Pictures Production, "The Black Bird," for Columbia Pictures release. George Segal produced for Rastar, his first film production, and screenwriter David Giler directed the film, his first direction from a screen play he wrote.

For his current approach to an ageless standard, Giler has essayed a new attack — it's a spoof on that hallowed fictional private-eye hero, Sam Spade, 30 years later. Now it's his inept son, Junior, based in Dad's old office (located in a now-decrepit San Francisco neighborhood) trying to unravel the vagaries of the mysterious falcon's fitful flight.

More than a dozen years ago, enterprising film producer Ray Stark bought sequel rights to "The Maltese Falcon." Several writers tried rewriting it — all in a serious vein — but none seemed right to Stark until Giler came along with his infusion of humor.

With "The Black Bird," Hammett's book seems nearly to have traveled its full cinematic circle. All that's left now, it would seem, is to set it in a Western background to make it into a musical (perhaps a couple of disturbing thoughts for Hammett's ghost).

30 years later

In his 1941 version of "The Maltese Falcon," which history has hailed as a film classic, John Huston first became a film director, after having written the script. His case was a landmark one: Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor, Sidney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre, Elisha Cook Jr., and Lee Patrick.

For obvious reasons, no such cast could be gathered today, although two items should be stressed:

1) Several members of that 1941 cast were little known when they were joined to cast the "Falcon," and their prominence and legendary careers were launched by it;

2) as an accepted star and critically hailed performer, George Segal needs take second place to none and, although his leading lady, French star Stephanie Audran is little known to American audiences, she's won three top European acting awards, including the coveted British Film Academy Award, the first non-British player to be accorded that honor.

Die-hard film buffs, whose numbers are inestimable, will be pleased to learn that the Ray Stark organization persuaded two of the original cast members to reprise their original "Falcon" roles in

Two from original cast

"The Black Bird" — now 31-years later. First is Miss Lee Patrick, coaxed out of a 10-year retirement to be seen again as the incomparable secretary, Effie — now a tough and blasphemous old gas who despises Spade's son, Junior. Second is the original gunslinger — Elisha Cook Jr. — as Wilmer, the killer with a baby face and tiny hands which juggle huge guns.

"We thought it would be interesting to use the same persons, but not in their same characterizations," said director Giler in explaining why he chose a return of Miss Patrick and Cook to his cast. "Except for them, Mary Astor is the only living member of the troupe used by Huston. But, Miss Astor's role was just too big, too memorable there was no way I could see to use her." As with Huston, Giler coincidentally wrote the screenplay and directed the film.

BOGART IN 1941 — Humphrey Bogart starred as Dashiell Hammett's tight-lipped private eye in the 1941 screen version of "The Maltese Falcon," one of five films adapted from the Hammett novel published in 1930. "The Black Bird" is the first comedic screen treatment of the Falcon characters.

INDIGESTION — George Segal as Sam Spade Jr. contributes to the indigestion of Elisha Cook Jr. at his last meal. Cook plays Wilmer, the killer with a baby face and tiny hands which juggle huge guns in "The Black Bird." Cook played in the 1941 screen version of "The Maltese Falcon" with Humphrey Bogart.

SILLA AND FALCON — George Silla plays a neo-Nazi Hungarian midget, driven by an obsession to own the Maltese Falcon statuette in "The Black Bird." The motion picture was produced by Michael Levee and Lou Lombardo and was directed by David Giler from his screenplay, based on a story by Don M. Mankiewicz and Gordon Cotler.

Making fudge for Christmas is fun, but to make it in these fancy cut-outs is an extra treat for the candy dish. The fudge is easy to make and comes out creamy and delicious. The holidays aren't complete without candy!

Christmas fudge

Making Christmas fudge cut outs can be a delightful family experience especially for children — keeping them busy for hours. Here are easy-to-make Christmas cut outs made from a tasty fudge recipe using semi-sweet real chocolate morsels. Let your imagination roam for gift possibilities or whatever creative ideas you and your family come up with as special gifts from your kitchen. To make a merrier Christmas, bake these holiday gifts and bring back the feeling of an old fashion

Christmas. Here is the recipe and instructions as developed in the test kitchens. 4 cups sifted confectioners' sugar 2/3 cup evaporated milk 1 measuring tablespoon butter 1/2 measuring teaspoon salt 1 6-oz. pkgs. (2 cups) Semi-Sweet Real Chocolate Morsels. In large saucepan, combine confectioners' sugar, evaporated milk, butter and salt. Cook over moderate heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil; remove from heat. Add Semi-Sweet Real Chocolate Morsels; stir until morsels melt and mixture is smooth. Spread evenly in aluminum foil-lined 13" x 9" x 2" pan. Chill in refrigerator until firm (about 1 1/2 hours). Lift out of pan; peel off foil. Allow fudge to soften several minutes:

Queen's yule cake like fudge

- The Queen's Christmas Cake
- 3 eggs
  - 2/3 cup sugar plus 1 tablespoon
  - 1/4 pound soft butter or margarine
  - 4 oz. semi-sweet baking chocolate
  - 2 tablespoons rum or strong coffee
  - 3/4 cup cake flour
  - 1/8 teaspoon salt
  - 1/3 cup ground almonds
  - Chocolate Butter Cream Frosting
  - 2 tablespoons toasted slivered almonds

Separate eggs and let the whites warm to room temperature. Beat whites until they form soft peaks, then beat in 1 tablespoon sugar and continue beating until stiff peaks form. Cream the butter with 2/3 cup sugar until smooth, then add egg yolks and beat until thick and lemon-colored.

Melt the chocolate over hot water; stir in rum and mix into the creamed butter and sugar.

Mix together the flour, salt and ground almonds; then add to batter, blending thoroughly. Fold in whipped egg whites. Spoon into an oiled and floured 8 x 1 1/2 inch round cake pan. With a spoon or spatula push the batter up against the sides.

Bake at 350 degrees for 25 to 30 minutes (30 to 35 minutes at 325 degrees for glass pan). Cake is done when tested with toothpick and is puffed and dry 2 1/2 to 3 inches around edges. The center can still be shaky and the toothpick a bit "sticky." Cool cake in pan for 10 to 15 minutes. Run a sharp knife around outside of cake and turn upside-down on wire rack. Let cool completely then glaze with Chocolate Butter Cream Frosting and sprinkle with 2 tablespoons almonds. Refrigerate.

Chocolate Butter Cream: Melt 1 oz. semi-sweet chocolate and 3 tablespoons butter over hot water. Stir in 1 tablespoon rum. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

goodies to eat add to the yule spirit and are great gifts. They can be wrapped in bright paper and put on the tree.

Chocolate goodies Make yule cookies

What a delightful way to say "Merry Christmas" when you're offering the traditional homemade Christmas sweets.

Choco-Cherries
2 cups unsifted flour
1 measuring teaspoon salt
1 measuring teaspoon baking soda
1 cup butter, softened
1 cup sugar
1 measuring teaspoon vanilla extract
1 6-oz. pkg. (1 cup) semi-sweet real chocolate morsels

Choco-Cherries
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 cup drained, chopped maraschino cherries Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. In small bowl, combine flour, salt and baking soda; set aside. In large bowl, combine butter and sugar; beat until creamy. Blend in vanilla extract. Blend in flour mixture. Stir in semi-sweet real chocolate morsels, nuts and cherries. Drop by rounded teaspoonfuls onto ungreased cookie sheets. Bake at 375 degrees F. Time: 10-12. Makes 7 dozen 1 1/2" cookies.

Chocolate Orange Walnuts
3 cups sugar
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup orange juice
2 6-oz. pkgs. (2 cups) semi-sweet real chocolate morsels

4 cups coarsely-chopped walnuts
1 measuring tablespoon

grated orange rind
In large heavy saucepan, combine sugar, water and orange juice. Cook over high heat, stirring constantly. Boil for 3 minutes (or until candy thermometer registers 230 degrees C.). Remove from heat and cool 5-6 minutes (or until candy thermometer registers 200 degrees C.). Add semi-sweet real chocolate morsels and stir until mixture is smooth. Quickly stir in walnuts and orange rind. Spread in aluminum foil-lined 15" x 10" x 1" pan. Chill in refrigerator at least 1 hour. Cut into 1" squares. Makes 12 dozen candies.

Choco-Nut Dainties
3/4 cup butter, softened

1 1/2 measuring teaspoons vanilla extract
1 egg
2 cups unsifted flour
1 measuring teaspoon salt
2 6-oz. pkgs. (2 cups) semi-sweet real chocolate morsels

2 cups very finely-chopped nuts

Cookie: Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. In large bowl, combine butter, sugar and vanilla extract; beat well. Beat in egg. Blend in flour and salt. Mix in 1/2 cup semi-sweet real chocolate morsel. Shape into 2" logs, using a level teaspoon for each. Place on ungreased cookie sheets.

Bake at: 350 degrees F. Time: 10-12 minutes. Let cookies cool while making chocolate coating.

Chocolate Coating: Melt over hot (not boiling) water remaining 1 1/2 cups Semi-Sweet Real Chocolate morsels and 1 tablespoon shortening, stirring until chocolate melts and mixture is smooth. Dip ends of cookie into chocolate coating and roll at once in nuts. Place on waxed paper until set. Makes 7 dozen 2" logs.

Apple news

What is the role of apples in dental health?

Eating an apple does provide a great assistant for removing foods clinging to teeth. The mild fibrous texture provides detergent action; its juice content, aroma and appeal induce salivary activity. It all adds up to make apples "nature's toothbrush."

What happens to an apple when it's placed in cold storage?

Cold storage consists of refrigerated rooms chilled to about 32 degrees F., with high humidity (85% or higher). Low temperature slows the rate of respiration and high humidity prevents evaporation of moisture from the fruit. After an apple is picked from the tree it continues to live and respire, using oxygen and giving off carbon dioxide — just as people do. As a rule of thumb the warmer the temperature the more rapid the respiration — or ripening process — i.e. apples at room temperature ripen at several times the rate they do when refrigerated.

What is CA Storage? Controlled Atmosphere storage combined refrigerations with a controlled atmosphere — reduced oxygen supply and increased carbon dioxide to further slow the metabolic rate of the fruit in storage. This further extends the storage life of the apple.

How is "Controlled Atmosphere" achieved?

The apples are stored in an airtight, refrigerated room where they use up part of the oxygen and evolve carbon dioxide until the desired atmosphere level or ratio of oxygen to carbon dioxide is achieved. The proper level is controlled (1) by circulating air in the room through water to remove excess carbon dioxide (called "scrubbing") and (2) by introducing more air into the room if the oxygen level is too low. Low oxygen and high carbon dioxide levels, in addition to refrigeration, slow the rate of respiration. This results in fine, hard, crisp apples into late spring and early summer.

Things to see in Southland

"OLIVER TWIST" — Famous quick-change artist Michael McGivney plays all the roles in "Oliver Twist" during Magic Mountain's "A Charles Dickens' Christmas" 10 a.m.-6 p.m. Saturday through Wednesday. The play will air at the park's Showcase Theatre 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. daily.

Holiday events dominate this week's listing of Dec. 18-23 activities (subject to change without notice), as compiled by the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Of special interest are Joshua Tree's Little Town of Bethlehem Pageant; Taft's Christmas Variety Show, and the American Freedom Train, in Pomona.

ALTADENA: Christmas Tree Lane, featuring 80-foot Himalayan deodars strung with 10,000 lights; lighted at 6:30 p.m., along Santa Rosa Ave., from Altadena Dr. to Woodbury Rd., Dec. 20-Jan. 1 (travelling south only, in two lanes).

ANAHEIM: 31st annual Holiday on Ice, starring Jill Shipstad, Judy McLeod, the Cook Family and "Sesame Street" characters; various times, at the Convention Center, Dec. 25-30 (paid admission).

Christmas Version of "America on Parade," plus a Candlelight Procession with a 1000-voice choir (6 p.m., Dec. 20-21); various times, at Disneyland, through Jan. 4 (included in regular admission).

BEVERLY HILLS: Christmas Program; 7:30 p.m., in the Beverly Hills High School Auditorium, 241 S. Moreno Dr., Dec. 18 (admission free).

JANUARY 1ST IS TOO LATE

To save money on your 1975 income tax, there are things to do before the end of the year. At any Mutual Savings Office, H&R BLOCK will tell you what you can do. Free.

Come in to any Mutual Savings Office and talk to a representative from H & R Block, the nation's best known tax preparers. They will answer your questions about how to legitimately reduce your 1975 income tax.

For instance, they will discuss with you the possible advantages of prepaying interest, property taxes, medical bills, even early registration of your automobile. Or setting up a retirement account.

This year you have your choice of two tax shelter accounts — the Individual Retirement Account (IRA) and the Self-Employed Retirement Plan (known as the Keogh Plan). If you are eligible you can open one of these accounts — and save considerable tax money — this year.

IRA Plan — permits you to put aside up to 15% of your earned income or $1500, whichever is the lesser amount, without paying Federal taxes if there is no qualified retirement plan where you work. You don't even pay taxes on the interest until you draw the money out on retirement. At Mutual Savings your money can grow substantially — without taxes — as you save it.

Self-Employed Retirement Plan (Keogh) — This is for people who work for themselves or who own — or are a partner — in an unincorporated business. You can put aside up to 15% of earned income or $7500, whichever is less, without paying Federal Taxes until you retire and get the same substantial growth.

Call the nearest branch of Mutual Savings and we will give you an appointment to see the H & R Block representative.

Fireproof Christmas urged

The California Department of Consumer Affairs and the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission has joined with California State Fire Marshal, Phil Favro, to recommend the following 12 steps for a warm, fireproof Christmas:

- When buying Christmas lights, look for a UL (Underwriters Laboratories) tested label. Do not buy new or use old strands with worn insulation, broken plugs, cracked or loose bulb sockets, or exposed metal parts.

- Keep a fresh tree in water, make sure it is well supported, and locate it away from exit doors and all sources of heat, especially fireplaces.
- Look for a flame retardancy label on artificial trees.
- To avoid shock or burn, never put electric light strands on a metallic artificial tree.
- Never use indoor lights outside; use weatherproof outdoor lights and secure them tightly against the wind.
- To avoid overloading circuits, use no more than three sets of Christmas lights to one extension cord.

- Never use lit candles on a tree, or near evergreen boughs, packaging or hanging materials. Make sure candles are in a stable noncombustible base and placed away from small children.
- Never place combustible articles like evergreen boughs, plastic ornaments, or Christmas cards on the mantle or around the fireplace.
- Always use a fireplace screen and never throw wrapping papers in the fireplace; put them in a trash container.
- Ornaments should be non-combustible.
- Read directions on artificial logs carefully; many can be used only one at a time and could flare up violently if mixed with real logs or any other materials.

After 40, chances improve

Age has cold advantage

As you get older, you do get better — or at least you have a better chance of developing fewer colds.

According to a chart appearing in a national news magazine, on a scale of one to six, infants under the age of one went over the scale and had 6.1 colds a year in a six-year study of 4,906 individuals.

Children five to nine years of age had 3.5 colds, and from ages 10 to 39 the scale varies only slightly, with the top number registering at 2.8 and the lowest at 2.3. By age 40, the picture improves. Between the ages of 40 and 49, there were 1.7 colds per year. Between the ages of 50-59, 1.6 and over 60, 1.3.

What researchers also found was that just as children resist returning to school when Monday rolls around, adults may have the same feeling about work. There were more colds on Monday than any other day of the week.

However, the researchers have a theory about this. They point out that most colds are transmitted during the first days of the school week, with symptoms gradually developing over the weekend and blossoming into full-blown colds by Monday morning.

San Dimas Press; LaVerne Leader; The Bulletin; Upland News; Cucamonga Times; Montclair Tribune

No mention is made of whether the colds were treated and if so, how.

However, symptoms of simple, uncomplicated colds at any age are usually treated basically in the same manner. Nose drops or nasal sprays, a decongestant, but in different strengths for different ages are the kind physicians recommend most. Rest, liquids, aspirin, and cough medication, if indicated, are also customary.

However, there is often an age difference in the kind of liquids dispensed. Children seem to do fine on hot lemonade, or perhaps cold ginger ale. Hot toddies, and iced martinis or scotch and water would appear to have a more soothing effect on some adults. Chicken soup is usually acceptable to almost everyone.

Bicentennial salute to the United States

Freedom Train to stop at fairgrounds

A memorable mix of dazzling displays, striking scenes and exciting sounds of the United States — The American Freedom Train is coming to Southern California. It will be on display at the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds in Pomona Dec. 23-30.

It will then make stops in Santa Barbara for three days, Jan. 2-4; in Long Beach for three days, Jan. 6-8; in Anaheim for 4½ days, Jan. 9-13; and in San Juan Capistrano for 1½ days, Jan. 19-20.

Patriotically packaged in red, white and blue, the train is a show-stopping, steam puffing, whistle-tooting Bicentennial salute to America.

Powered by a giant steam locomotive, the 25-car train is carrying a fascinating collection of historic documents, priceless objects and memorabilia that has never before been displayed together in one place. This exclusive Bicentennial production is a once-in-a-lifetime experience presented by the American Freedom Train Foundation Inc., a nonprofit, tax-exempt and non-political organization with headquarters in Bailey's Crossroads, Virginia.

Hard on the heels of the July 4 Independence Day celebration in 1974, a red, white and blue "Preamble Express" began its test run from Boston July 9 to many of the display sites planned for the actual visit of The American Freedom Train. The passengers aboard the "Preamble Express" were specialists concerned with the many details that had to be worked out before the Freedom Train could be put on the rails.

What followed was that this Bicentennial dream of a man with a passion for railroading, became reality. Ross Rowland, 35-year-old commodity broker on Wall Street, was the first person to push the idea of a Freedom Train as a national Bicentennial project. It was based on the concept of "the Spirit of '47" that toured the nation for 16 months starting in 1947.

Unique and imaginative, the train consists of 10 daringly designed exhibit cars and two spectacular showcase cars. From the moment the viewer steps into exhibit car No. 1 on a moving walkway, there is a magical feeling of reliving 200 years of U.S. history.

The Beginning
Car No. 1 — The exciting saga of U.S. achievements, spanning two centuries, is recalled in this display containing documents written by our founding fathers such as Benjamin Franklin's handwritten draft of the Articles of Confederation, 1775; George Washington's personal copy of the U.S. Constitution, 1787; and a facsimile of the first printed copy of the Declaration of Independence.

In addition to these, and other written records of our history, the display includes memorabilia ranging from Revolutionary War weapons to a piece of the original Star Spangled Banner. The flag, with its 15 stars and 15 stripes, was flying over Fort Mifflin when the British attacked Baltimore, Md., September 1814. The sight of the flag still flying when the dawn came following the attack, inspired Francis Scott Key to write the poem that later became the national anthem.

Exploration and Expansion
Car No. 2 — Highlighting the country's expansion from the days of the westward movement to adventures in outer space, this display is an exciting treatment of the changing times.

Starting with the native Americans, a colorful selection of relics is shown reflecting the contributions of the Cherokee, Seminole, Iroquois and many others. These picturesquely portrayed items range from the original 1818 treaty with the Illinois - Peoria Tribe to an authentic Blackfoot horned bonnet and Arapaho headdress.

Additional articles that span the colonial period to space exploration, include a 1797 Daniel Boone survey and a journal of the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

Growth of a Nation
Car No. 3 — This display is devoted to the transformation of America's landscape from the wilderness of frontier days, to the towering skyscrapers of today.

Spectacular scenes on changing panels, graphically portray U.S. farmlands, parks and cities.

Origins
Car No. 4 — Designed to represent the broad cultural mix of the U.S., the highlight of this display is the use of "talking heads." These "talking mannequins" speak of the origins of various Americans while visual history is shown through the use of traditional objects and memorabilia of their original heritage.

Innovations
Car No. 5 — From this broad exhibit of inventions and machinery, one of the most interesting displays is a progression of incandescent lamps that date from 1881 to 1967. Also included is a replica of Thomas A. Edison's first successful incandescent lamp (circa 1879).

Human Resources
Car No. 6 — Mechanical hands, representing the diversity of trades in the U.S., make this an exciting visual display. Equally memorable is the series of publications and memorabilia that have had a stabilizing effect on our developing nation: Thomas Paine's 1776 edition of "Common Sense"; the first English Bible printed in the U.S., 1782; Julia Ward Howe's original manuscript of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Sports
Car No. 7 — Fast-paced and crackling with the excitement of performing sports "super stars" and cheering crowds, this car is a recreation of those "great moments" in U.S. sports history. This section spans the entire sports world from A.J. Foyt's racing helmet to Billie Jean King's tennis racquet.

Performing Arts
Car No. 8 — The razzle-dazzle of Tin Pan Alley, and the fabulous fantasies of Hollywood are combined to make the performing arts display the perfect setting for reminiscing. The exhibit — highlighted by a marquee flashing the names of Hollywood's finest — takes on the glow of "show biz" with a collection of memorabilia that includes Judy Garland's "Dorothy" dress from "The Wizard of Oz"; the Gold Record awarded Bing Crosby for his crooning rendition of "White Christmas"; and the coveted "Oscar."

Fine Arts
Car No. 9 — Archibald M. Willard's oil on canvas, "The Spirit of '76," is one of the priceless paintings shown in this fine arts display. This and more is included in this sampling of America's artists and sculptors. Shown are Winslow Homer's 1878 watercolor, "The Pumpkin Patch," and Frederic Remington's 1895 bronze statue, "Bronco Buster."

Conflict and Resolution
Car No. 10 — Emotion-packed and powerful, this final display car is devoted to various times of crisis, and their resolutions, as Americans pressed forward to achieve the full measure of democracy.

The exhibit is divided into periods covering the leadership of U.S. presidents that include Abraham Lincoln, Franklin D. Roosevelt, John F. Kennedy and Gerald R. Ford. Also reflected are the unique contributions of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Traumatic periods in U.S. history are told through the recreation of such settings as Lincoln's box at Ford's Theater the night of his assassination. This display includes a replica of his rocking chair and actual opera glasses he was carrying that evening.

A replica of another famous rocking chair, one used by Kennedy, is included in the section portraying the leadership of this Nobel-prize-winning president. The display includes such unusual items as his hand-written notes for "Profiles in Courage."

Other settings evolve around Roosevelt's historic message to Congress following the bombing of Pearl Harbor, and the period of Dr. King's leadership during the civil rights movement of the 60s. The display moves to a close with a display reflecting the period of Ford's inauguration as President of the U.S.

Showcase Cars
Featured in tow, twinkling, glass-enclosed cars are unforgettable displays.

Brand new and sparkling is the fabulous Freedom Bell (twice the size of the Liberty Bell) that was cast specially for this Bicentennial exhibit and dedicated to the children of the U.S. by the American Legion. Relics from the past include the historic "Old Scout," a 1904 Oldsmobile that won the first U.S. transcontinental automobile race and "The Arabian," an 1834 steam engine, and an 1849 hand-pump fire engine.

The train is a national Bicentennial project that was made possible, initially, by four civic-minded corporations that donated $1 million each. They include General Motors Corporation, Kraft Foods, Pepsi-Cola Company and Prudential Insurance Company of America.

The principle support of this project, however, will come from the public through the sale of admission tickets and souvenirs.

Before the train's nationwide journey is over the show will be seen by more than eight million U.S. citizens during its 17,000-mile journey.

Live broadcast from L.A. Christmas Eve music set

Tens of thousands of county residents again this year will hear the annual Christmas Music Program at the Music Center 9 a.m.-9 p.m. Christmas Eve, according to Los Angeles County Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, coordinator of the event.

"More than 20,000 people are expected to visit the Music Center for the 16th annual 12-hour program and thousands more will be watching on television and listening to it on radio," Hahn said.

He noted the event, which is the longest continuous program of Christmas music in the world, will be broadcast live and in its entirety by radio station KUSC-FM (91.5 on the dial) and KCET-TV (UHF Channel 28). Tom Burrows is producer for television.

Hahn said admission will be free for those who wish to see the program in person. Also, parking for the public will be free during the performance.

Sponsored by the Board of Supervisors and the county Music and Performing Arts Commission, the program will feature choirs, choruses, orchestras and soloists representing church and community groups from throughout the county.

Commentator Brian Clewer will serve as anchorman again this year and organist will be Chauncey Haines.

Opening remarks this year will be made by Mrs. George V. Russell, president of the Music and Performing Arts Commission. The welcoming address will be made by Supervisor Hahn. His Excellency John J.

Ward, auxiliary bishop of Los Angeles, will deliver the invocation. A program of Gregorian chant and Christmas hymns by St.

Matthias Church Choirs including members from Bellflower High School will follow.

Los Angeles City Councilman Gilbert W. Lindsay will make the closing remarks. The Rev. Thomas Kilgore Jr. of the Second Baptist Church of Los Angeles will deliver the benediction.

Among the groups performing this year will be:

The Youth Band Council of Southern California from 9:25-10 a.m., Santa Fe High School Chorus of Santa Fe Springs from 10:10-15 a.m., the District Boychoir of the Compton Unified School District 10:15-30 a.m., and the Walnut High School Singers of the Walnut Valley Unified School District 10:30-10:45 a.m.

Also performing will be West High Aristocracy of Torrance 10:45-11 a.m., American Youth Symphony from throughout the county 11 a.m.-noon, Union Bank Singers of Los Angeles from noon-12:15 p.m., The Present Company of Huntington Park 12:15-12:30 p.m., and the Repertoire Singers originating from Los Angeles City College voice classes 12:30-12:45 p.m.

Others will be the Lutheran Laymen's League Men's Chorus 12:45-1 p.m., Los Angeles County Youth Symphony Orchestra Council 1-1:45 p.m., Byzantine Chorus of St. Sophia Greek Orthodox Cathedral 1:45-2 p.m., Korean Philharmonic Choir of Los Angeles 2-2:15 p.m., The Mary-Annettes San Fernando Valley Women's Chorale 2:15-2:30 p.m., and Los Angeles County Youth Symphony Christmas Festival Orchestra 2:30-3:15 p.m.

Also included will be the Ukrainian National Chorus "Kobzar" of Los Angeles 3:15-3:35 p.m., The Robert Seland Chorale of the San Fernando Valley 3:35-4 p.m., New Sounds of Hawthorne 4:4-15 p.m., Choral Christmas Gifts of Los Angeles from 4:15-4:30 p.m., Santa Monica Youth Orchestra 4:30-5 p.m., Marina Del Rey Singers 5-5:15 p.m., the combined youth choruses of Little Angel Choir, Girl's Glee, Angelic Choir of the Figueroa Church of Christ 5:15-5:45 p.m., and the Chamber Chorale of the First United Methodist Church of Hollywood 5:45-6 p.m.

In addition, appearing will be Organist Chauncey

Haines 6-6:15 p.m., Interdenominational Choir with the Gerald Wilson Orchestra (47 participating churches) 6:15-7 p.m., Citrus College Singers 7-7:30 p.m., Cathedral Choir of the Second Baptist Church 7:30-7:45 p.m., and excerpts from Messiah by the Japanese Philharmonic Orchestra with Hollywood Presbyterian Choir and Citrus College Singers 7:45-8:45 p.m.

A pretaped segment will be included in the Christmas Eve telecast on Channel 28 to provide informal breaks from the concert format.

Four organizations will be pretaped at the Los Angeles County Mall. They are the Youth Band Council of Southern California, Hollywood Tabernacle Band of the Salvation Army, California Boy's Choir and Philippine Concert Choir.

HOLLYWOOD CHRISTMAS — Frankenstein's monster gets into the holiday spirit with two baby goats from the petting farm and "Fred," the cockatoo star of the Animal Show and television's "Baretta" in preparation for the Christmas season at Universal Studios Tour. ## Oriental art on display

Lang Art Galleries at Scripps College, 9th and Columbia, is showing Selections from the Oriental Collections, an art exhibit, through Jan. 25.

It will show how Japanese woodblock prints are made, comparing them in their various states, and the tools used. Selections from Hiroshige's "53 Stations of the Tokaido Road" and other prints will be displayed.

Explanations of how cloisonne is made will be offered with the cloisonne display. Many of the pieces in the exhibit are from The Dorothy Adler Routh Collection of Asian Art and from The Dorothy Adler Routh Collection of Early Chinese Cloisonne presented to Scripps in 1974 and 1972. Some of the cloisonne dates back to the 13th century and varies in size from six-foot tall vases to delicate small animal figures.

Textiles will be displayed to demonstrate the development of design motifs. Chinese screens will also be included in the exhibit, which is open to the public free of charge 1-5 p.m. daily. The gallery will be open 7-9 p.m. Wednesdays. It will be closed during the Christmas holidays Dec. 20-Jan. 5, however.

HEALTH NEWS

RESTLESS IN SLEEP—TIRED TOMORROW?

By Dr. W. P. Helzer, D.C.

There seems to be a growing group of people who complain they are "always tired." What is the answer to this troubling problem? Before I answer let me say that if you have the impression that the "always tired" feeling is always the result of a deficiency of some important substance in the blood, that impression may well be wrong.

Dr. W. P. Helzer, D.C.

I don't care what that commercial says. There are other possible causes and it is two of them that I would ask you to give some thought.

Consider "lazy blood vessels." Should I drop a cork in a narrow stream where there is a fast current, the cork will float rapidly. Should that stream bed suddenly widen to a pond, the cork will float lazily along.

Now if that cork were a blood corpuscle in the blood stream, carrying oxygen to some needy cell, or if it were a particle of nutrition for that cell, you can imagine what would happen. The cell would tire before it received its nutrition.

Without getting so technical that I must give a complete description of the circulatory system and the function of the heart, let me simply ask you to observe that when the muscles in the walls of the blood vessels are generally too relaxed, the circulation of nutrition bearing blood to the cells is slowed too much. Some call it sluggish circulation. I used the term "lazy blood vessels."

I would like to call your attention to a statement by Loyola University's Physiology Specialist,

Dr. William Zoethout: "In order that the tissues may be adequately supplied with nourishment and at the least expenditure of energy, a close correlation must exist between the nervous mechanism governing the heart and that controlling the size of the blood vessels."

Certainly then an upset in that nerve mechanism of tissue nutrition is an important factor in that "always tired" feeling.

I mentioned two reasons for that "always tired" feeling. The second is Unrelaxed sleep.

To feel fully refreshed and equal to the next day's tasks, one must be fully relaxed in sleep.

I could go on at some length but suffice it to say, the person who's always tired would probably get pretty bored over medical fact and supposition.

He's tired, he "runs out of gas" easily, he plops in a sofa when he gets home can hardly force himself to pay attention to his family and job.

So I ask that he... or she... remember just one thing. Being "too pooped to pop" is not normal. Chances are that it is a condition that won't clear itself up, nor will energy pills and additives clear up the cause of the problem. I've had many patients drag themselves into my care. Frankly, it peps me up to see them swing back into stride.

IMPORTANT FOREST SAFETY "DON'TS"

Don't get chummy with forest animals.

Example: a cute little bear cub probably has a large, angry mother nearby.

Don't take chances when fording streams. Mossy rocks and strong currents can give you a dangerous dunking.

Don't leave a campfire till you know it's dead out. In seconds, it could turn into a forest fire.

Don't do anything that will hurt you or the forest. Smokey wants all his friends to play it safe.
